At a minimum, the intervention strategy is activated for VET students where the student has failed or is deemed not yet competent in 50 per cent or more of the units attempted in any study period, and for ELICOS students where the student has not successfully completed 50% of the course requirements in any study period. The College may choose to intervene at any point before the end of a study period for example if the student does not attend the classes regularly or does not respond to the College's attempts to assist the student in achieving satisfactory course progress.
18. At the end of each compulsory study period, students will be assessed against the Course Progress and Intervention Strategy Policy and Procedures. 22. Where the student's appeal is successful, the outcomes may vary according to the findings of the appeals process.
 - a. If the appeal shows that there was an error in calculation, and the student actually made satisfactory course progress (successfully completed more than 50% of the course requirements for that study period), the College does not report the student, and there is no requirement for intervention.
 - b. If the appeals process shows that the student has not made satisfactory progress, but there are compassionate or compelling reasons for the lack of progress, ongoing support will be provided to the student through the College's intervention strategy, and the College will not report the student.
23. Where the student has chosen not to access the College's complaints and appeals processes within the 20 working day period, the student withdraws from the process, or the process is completed and results in a decision supporting the College (i.e. the student's appeal was unsuccessful), the College will notify the ESOS Agency and Department of Home Affairs through PRISMS as soon as practicable of the student not achieving satisfactory course progress.
24. The College notifies the ESOS Agency and Department of Home Affairs through PRISMS of the student not achieving satisfactory progress after the appeals process (if actioned) is finalised and upholds the College's decision to report.
